I, Dr Puneet Batra, have recently taken over as Editor-in Chief of the Journal of Indian Orthodontic Society (JIOS). The journal is published under the Wolters Kluwer (Medknow) banner. In my efforts to further heighten the quality of the journal, I have decided to constitute an Editorial Board. It is in this regard that I write to you, extending a warm invitation to join the Journal Editorial Board as a worthy member. I hope you would be able to spare some time to not only review and submit manuscripts from your end, but also to pave a new and better road for the journal through periodic constructive inputs to the Editorial Board.

As this position is optional; there would be no pay involved. Kindly revert to this mail with a confirmation of your acceptance and brief CV so that we may begin your registration process.

Following successful registration, you would be sent a confirmation of the same with a full set of guidelines to facilitate smooth functioning of the journal. The ocean of future success would be deepened by the drops of your priceless input.

Looking forward to your positive reply
